Newcomer Ministry High Level Congregational Assessment

There are assumptions in these comprehensive assessment tools that your congregation is undertaking significant opportunities to teach and support lifelong Christian formation in its members. This high level list is a starting place for you to evaluate your congregational newcomer ministry. It is not intended to be either all inclusive or size specific.

INVITE... Evangelism

- Do your clergy, staff, and lay leaders teach, preach, and model INVITE (personal invitation) & Evangelism?
- What are you doing in an organized way to invite new people to visit your church? Do you provide any physical tools to your members to help them invite others?
- How do you prepare your congregation to be evangelists? Do you offer education/ training/ guides guides for sharing their faith journey/stories?
- What are the creative avenues your church offers to invite the local community to visit? Do you intentionally connect these activities with information about your church?
- How well do you know (and how much are you involved with) the community surrounding your church?
- What is your church/clergy/staff relationship with local civic/community groups?
- What do you offer in the way of communication, both outside & in-house? Have you cultivated a relationship with your local media?
- Is your website up-to-date, relevant, newcomer & mobile friendly? Are you using social media as an evangelism tool?

WELCOME... ministry of Hospitality

- Do your clergy, staff, and lay leaders teach, preach, and model a theology of WELCOME & Hospitality?
- Do the members of your congregation intentionally look for the stranger in their midst?
- Would you say your congregation is a “friendly community” or is it a “community of friends?”
- Can you identify the members of your congregation who have the gift of hospitality?
- Does your church have an organized comprehensive strategy/system for welcoming and following up with newcomers? If so, do the members of your vestry and leadership know the details of the system?
- How well is your welcoming system working? What needs to be added and/or changed?

CONNECT... Empowering Laity for Ministry

- Do your clergy, staff, and lay leaders teach, preach, and model CONNECT, helping people discern their giftedness (vocation); then empowering, equipping, entrusting, and affirming them for ministry?
- What is your process for connecting newcomers into ministry at your church? Do you have an intentional system of tracking and follow-up of every single newcomer?
- Given that the Deep Truth of CONNECT is the “Sacred Act of Listening”...do you offer any resources/classes for listening skills?
- Can you identify the members of your congregation who are “connectors” – those people who naturally have a gift for connecting others?
- Given that newcomer ministry needs to be a team effort, how do your staff and/or lay volunteers interface with newcomers?
- What are your pathways to belonging? Do you offer a clear membership pathway, teaching the importance of our Episcopal rites of initiation, e.g., baptism, confirmation, and reception?
- What is your process for empowering laity for ministry? Do you have a variety of resources/methods/classes to assist people in discerning their God-given giftedness for ministry?
- Do you have written descriptions of all lay ministries in your church? In what ways do you communicate ongoing up-to-date information about lay ministries to your newcomers and congregation?
- Do you have a system for the nurture and support of all lay ministries in your church?
- Do you have exit conversations with the people who leave your church?

CHURCH-SCHOOL

- Do your clergy, staff, and lay leadership understand and/or believe that your school could be your biggest mission field?
- Do you have an organized strategy to address this issue? If so, what is it?
- What are the ways you intentionally build and maintain healthy relationships between your church and school?

On-going training

For entire welcome team, including greeters, ushers, hospitality team

Flow chart

Newcomer ministry strategy/process for clergy/staff/leadership

Mystery worshippers audit

Invite other Episcopalians to be “mystery worshipers”

First Impressions

Welcome

IDEAS & RESOURCES

Sunday Morning Suggestions

- > Have your designated Vestry person of the day carry around the office cordless phone in order to answer any incoming phone calls, or...
- > Have a lay ministry volunteer at the church office answering the phone for those last-minute people who might be calling to know times of worship services or directions.

New Episcopal signs – Episcopal Marketplace

Greeting & Welcoming

Welcome Team Members

- Form greeter teams based on which service they attend; this will insure they will generally know the difference between a member and a guest/visitor

Welcome Team Tools & Suggestions

- “Ask Me” Name tags or t-shirts for greeters, ushers, hospitality teams
- Umbrellas: For parking lot and/or front door greeters in the event of rain
- Greeter Connectors: Intentional introduction to others = Greeter escorts visitor into nave and/or arranges for member to sit with them

Words of Welcome from Clergy

- Brief welcome & instructions for the congregation to introduce themselves to each other before worship service begins; clergy also intentionally points out welcome card/welcome table
- One clergy suggestion = ‘words of welcome’
  - No matter where you come from or where you're going*
  - No matter what you believe or what you doubt*
  - No matter what you feel or just don't feel today*
  - No matter whom you love*
  - You are welcome into this space to be met by a God*
  - Who knows you by name, who knows your heart, who knows your mind, and...*
  - Who wants to have a relationship with you*

Nametags

- Blank nametags ~ everyone writes their own name
- The 30 per page (peel off mailing label) nametags
- Laminated with magnet holders or clip ons

Guest Information Gathering

- Perforated “Get Connected” card attached to worship bulletin (for visitors & current members alike)
- Pew welcome card; guest book
- 5x7 clip board, with information sheet attached, given to each guest as they enter into the narthex
- Pew folder ~ at end of each pew ~ holds blank name tags, perforated newcomer/visitor information card, church information card, marker & pen

Guest Welcome Gift (tie in with the church's name, locale, or logo)

- Homemade bread
- Mug
- Magnet
- Pen
- Packet of popcorn
- Chocolate bar
- Bookmarks
- Water bottle
- Bags for "green" cities where plastic bags are outlawed

Guest Information Packet

Welcome Bag/Folder

- Church brochure with ministry information
- CD or Flash drive with information about the church
- Episcopalian, Sacraments, Creeds, BCP, brochures
- Church core values, mission & vision statement
- Current newsletter
- Facilities map with service times

Follow-Up

Staff and/or Ministry Volunteer Follow-up

- Newcomer information shared with pertinent staff and/or ministry volunteers = this includes ALL clergy and any person who interfaces with newcomer

Newcomer survey for first time visitors TOOLKIT

Training, Education, In-House Assessment

Flow Chart examples of newcomer ministry strategy/process TOOLKIT

- Welcoming article "Three Minute Hospitality" TOOLKIT

Kid Bags

- Colorful pipe cleaners
- Bible lesson to color
- Crayons
- Sacred scribblers (blank card stock)
- Small stuffed animal or small toy

Hospitality after Worship

- Three minute rule = parishioners are encouraged to talk to someone they do not know for three (3) minutes after the service
- Clergy (if more than one on staff) welcoming at different exits after service

Entrance & Exit Conversations

- Entrance Conversation: For a Realistic Look at your Newcomer Ministry Process, visit with five (5) people who have joined your church within the last year.
- Exit Conversation: For a Reality Check, have an intentional conversation with everyone who leaves your church. This does not have to be a formal process, and might be more informative if done by laity rather than clergy ... meet them for a cup of coffee or a beer!

Connect

IDEAS & RESOURCES

Connecting

FLOW CHARTS of Invite-Welcome-Connect newcomer process TOOLKIT

INTENTIONAL CONVERSATIONS

(Hearing the newcomer's soul story, an intentional conversation of the head & heart)

Initial Conversation

- Where did you grow up?
- Did you grow up in another church tradition? If so, which one?
- If Episcopalian now...when were you confirmed/received?
- If you've been away from church for a long time, what or who brought you back?
- How did you find your way to this church? Did someone invite you?

Going Deeper

- Have you ever felt God's call in your life?
- Do you feel called to a particular ministry now?
- What do you love doing? What gives you life? Joy? What makes your heart sing?

CONNECTORS

(Shepherds, Mentors, Sponsors)

- These are people who might be in the same age range and/or particular life stage as the newcomer, i.e. parents of pre-schoolers or teenagers; dealing with elderly parents; recently divorced, etc.
